

ART HISTORY (AH)

AH 101U (3 credit hours)

Introduction to Visual Studies

This course introduces students to the concepts and techniques of visual literacy. It explores a full spectrum of man-made visual forms encountered by contemporary Americans from Architecture and works of art to graphic novels, advertisements, television programs and films, photos and the internet. Lecture: 3 credits (45 contact hours).

Attributes: AH - Arts and Humanities, University Course (University of Kentucky)

Components: LEC: Lecture

University Course: University of Kentucky