

HONORS (HON)

HON 101 (3 credit hours)The Ancient World

From Greek and Roman antiquity to the early Christian centuries: an interdisciplinary course in intellectual history. Readings vary at the discretion of the faculty. Lecture: 3 credits (45 contact hours).

Pre-requisite: Membership in the Honors Program.

Attributes: AH - Arts and Humanities

Components: LEC: Lecture

HON 102 (3 credit hours)The Medieval and Renaissance World

From the Middle Ages through the Reformation: an interdisciplinary course in intellectual history. Readings vary at the discretion of the faculty. Written assignments required. Lecture: 3 credits (45 contact hours).

Pre-requisite: Membership in the Honors Program.

Attributes: AH - Arts and Humanities

Components: LEC: Lecture

HON 201 (3 credit hours)The Early and Modern World

From the development of the modern scientific method through mid-19th century industrialism: an interdisciplinary course in intellectual history. Readings vary at the discretion of the faculty. Lecture: 3 credits (45 contact hours).

Pre-requisite: Membership in the Honors Program.

Attributes: AH - Arts and Humanities

Components: LEC: Lecture

HON 202 (3 credit hours)The Contemporary World

The contemporary world: an interdisciplinary course in intellectual history. Readings vary at the discretion of the faculty. Lecture: 3 credits (45 contact hours).

Pre-requisite: Membership in the Honors Program.

Attributes: AH - Arts and Humanities

Components: LEC: Lecture