COMMUNITY HEALTH WORKER

The technical certificate will prepare students for a scope of practice for community health workers highlighting six central roles of: communication, organizational and community outreach, advocacy, health coaching, organization, and legal/ethics of the profession. The program will consist of on-line and in-person lab experience.

Certificates

- Community Health Worker - Certificate (https://catalog.kctcs.edu/programs-of-study/aas/community-health-worker/community-health-work-certificate/)